Democratic Party Primary

Election Day: June 14, 2022

Early Voting: May 28 - June 10

Offering a voter guide in any election is never easy, and for those of us who proudly call ourselves progressives, the challenge is that much harder. In every cycle we're faced with the tough choice of deciding where to draw the lines on our values, which candidates to support out of principle, and which candidates to support out of necessity. 2022 has been no different, but in spite of all that, we're proud to once again offer you this list of recommendations built with the care, deliberation, and integrity that you deserve. No decision here was made lightly, and while we can't always vote for the candidates who share our values, we're committed to voting for the candidates that give us the best shot at winning a better world for all of us.

Yours in Solidarity and Service,

The Leadership of Left Caucus

Senate Catherine Cortez Masto

Although Catherine Cortez Masto does not share many of the views integral to us as Leftists and Progressives, we understand the importance of keeping our state's marginalized populations protected from the hostility and hatred being proposed by far-right candidates and are recommending a vote for her.

Representative in Congress, District 1 Dina Titus

Although Amy Vilela has run on Leftist and Progressive rhetoric and talking points, her actions and the state of her campaign do not show any commitment to winning her race or remaining accountable to voters. We cannot recommend a campaign that is being run for the enrichment of a political consultant rather than for the betterment of our community. We are left with no choice but to recommend Dina Titus.

Representative in Congress, District 2 Elizabeth Mercedes Krause

Nevada's 2nd Congressional District is a historically Republican area where Democrats of any background have struggled to make headway. Given these challenges, we are recommending the support of Elizabeth Mercedes Krause, a highly-progressive candidate who is running to elevate the voices and highlight the needs of the Native American community in our state.

Sheriff
Kevin McMahonill

Although we recognize the inherent hazard posed by the police, the enormity of their budgets, and the extreme dangers of their militarization, we also recognize that the position of Clark County sheriff affects the lives of too many Nevadans to be ignored. As both Stan Hyt and Tom Roberts have close ties to far-right groups, unrepentant racists, and dangerous conspiracy theorists, we are recommending the election of Kevin McMahonill, who has openly opposed violent extremism and who has repeatedly called for addressing of houselessness, mental health issues, and addiction through responses not involving law enforcement.
